

Employer's reference

Please complete this form clearly in black ink using CAPITAL letters.

Name of Applicant: _____

The above named applicant has applied to do a course of study at All Nations Christian College. Thank you for your willingness to write a reference for them.

All Nations Christian College is an international, interdenominational college, training students for involvement in cross-cultural Christian mission. The courses are both academically challenging and practical. Students may find, for example, life in a residential college quite stressful. Please note, therefore, that it is in the applicant's best interest to be as honest and realistic as possible in your comments. Although you should bear in mind that applicants may request to read what has been written about them, please do not let this inhibit your openness about their suitability to undertake this programme of study.
